

PLAYING GAMES IS GOOD FOR BUSINESS

We specialise in war games for companies who want a new way to encourage employees to work together.

Our events cater from small or large groups; for just your executive team, or your entire company. The old adage "the team that plays together, stays together" rings true.

Battlefield Live games have been enjoyed by hundreds of businesses and corporations from Coca Cola, Telstra, Kawasaki and many more.

FROM THE BOARDROOM TO THE WAR ROOM

What will the day look like;

The battlefield is set in seven acres of exclusive woodland with bases, bunkers, barricades and battle sounds. Your teams will use sophisticated infra-red gaming guns that are so up-to date and realistic that the military use them for their own training purposes.

Team members will be given tactical briefings and will be set team objectives. Everyone will be dressed and drilled, so they are ready to succeed on their missions in the most realistic simulation possible - short of joining the army. Players have to plan their attack, protect their rank and their comrades and successfully secure the objectives of each mission. As part of a team, everyone has to decide how much effort and involvement suits them. The best team will win due to their strategy, planning and prioritising.

Depending on your chosen package your teams can either conduct three (half day option) or five missions (full day) altogether. Lunch can be included at an additional cost.

NO PAIN, NO PAINT, NO BRUISES - JUST ADRENALINE FUELLED FUN

What you'll get out of it;

- Fun Fun Fun: We offer an adrenaline fuelled event that engages and motivates everyone involved
- Promoting teamwork and planning: We will give your teams objectives to complete together in a changing and challenging environment. The missions focus on the team success rather than individual scores
- Testing leadership: Our missions help you to identify who is a true leader within each team. The battlefield is always a demanding environment and strong leaders are vital to get the best performance from everyone involved. Games can be as elaborate or as simple as you require.
